

Fighting near palace of slain Rwanda president

Reuters, April 7, 1994

KIGALI, April 7 (Reuter) - Heavy fighting broke out around Rwanda's presidential palace on Thursday, hours after the presidents of Rwanda and Burundi were killed in a rocket attack that destroyed their plane, residents said.

Explosions rocked Kigali but residents could not immediately tell who was fighting whom.

The Defence Ministry said in a statement that the assassins who shot down the presidential plane were still unidentified.

(c) Reuters Limited 1994